MASTER OF SCIENCE INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT (CEMS MIM)

The Key to your Future career in a global Business Environment

THIS PROGRAMME PROVIDES YOU WITH:

- Management practice, methods, and theories required for international companies. This includes, but is not limited to, topics in strategy, leadership, organisation, and responsible/sustainable business practices.
- The opportunity to acquire and improve your problem-solving skills, communication skills, ability to work in and lead international teams, hard and soft skills, and process capabilities.
- A unique global network and access to our CEMS student community (“CEMSies”) – at home and abroad!

The CEMS network is a Global Alliance of 33 leading business schools across five continents and more than 80 multinational corporations and NGOs that jointly offer the CEMS Master in International Management (CEMS MIM). Only one among the most reputed schools of a country can become member of the alliance. The University of Cologne represents Germany.

THIS PROGRAMME IS RIGHT FOR YOU IF YOU:

- Have successfully completed a bachelor's or equivalent degree in management, business administration or economics – talented applicants from around the world are welcome.
- Can demonstrate initial work experience in the shape of internships, voluntary work, projects, and other relevant experiences.
- Are not only academically successful but also display a high standard of ethical conduct: you should be able to draw upon cultural diversity with respect and empathy as well as show professional responsibility and accountability concerning society as a whole.
